Getting To Know E*Value: Schedules

Last month we took a look at getting logged in to E*Value for the first time to take a look around at the new site. This month let us move a little more ahead to take a look at retrieving rotation schedules.

The address for the site is www.e-value.net and last month we went over the process for getting the username and password, but just as a refresher follow these steps:

- Click Forgot Password
- Fill out Security Question
- Enter Email Address
- Follow the Link Sent in Email
- Change Username or Password if You Wish

This should get you caught up and logged in.

Now that we are logged in we can take a look at finding upcoming rotation schedules. Currently there are schedules for the IPPE I & II rotation in May/June as well as IPPE III Spring Elective Week schedules. Once scheduling is complete for APPE rotations we will add those as well for you to be able to look through.

Now to find your schedule look for the tab titled Reports on the menu to the left and click on it if it is not already opened. Next click Schedules which will give you two options to choose from. Finally, click Roster Reports to take you to a new screen that will filter the schedules.

At the Roster Schedule Report screen you can do a little or as much filtering as you would like to look at your schedule. Curriculum can be narrowed down to certain student years by using the dropdown menu. If you want to look at certain frames of time you can use the calendar tool to change the start and end dates. You can also select to receive an Excel or PDF version of your schedule with the Format Option. After filtering you just need to click Next and the schedule will now be available to review past or upcoming schedules.

We look forward to sharing more with you concerning E*Value in April at Preceptor Conference.
