Intended Audience: This program is intended for pharmacists and practitioners who serve the University of Mississippi School of Pharmacy as preceptors.

Goal: To provide guidance and practical ways to enhance preceptorship instruction and practice among University of Mississippi preceptors.

Objectives:
Upon completion of this program, participants should be able to:

1. Apply practices shared by preceptors in similar settings to improve student pharmacy practice experiences.
2. Describe and apply tools for effective preceptor-learner feedback.
3. Discuss assessment and evaluation policies and procedures to improve consistency among practice experiences.
4. Discuss principles of home infusion related to pharmacy practice in Mississippi.
