APPE Notes

January 18 - Seminar Day / Start of Rotation

All students who are presenters must be in attendance for the entire day unless they are in the immediate Jackson area and can return to their rotation site. All others students should report to their rotation unless they have been excused by you to attend.

January 26 - Assembly and PCOA

All students are required to report to Jackson on January 26th in order to attend an assembly for announcements on commencement exercises and to take the Pharmacy Curriculum Outcomes Assessment. Students will not be reporting for rotation on this day.

February 4 - Pharmacy Recruitment Day

Students who are interested in participating in job interviews and meeting with potential employers as a part of Career Day activities on the University of Mississippi campus are excused from rotations to do so.

Join Us For Preceptor Conference

Preceptor Conference 2011 is again provide the opportunity fast approaching on the calendar and we look forward to seeing you there for an exciting day.

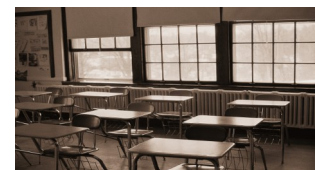

We will be introducing you to E*Value, our new database management system that will provide for a better rotation experience for both preceptor and student.

There will also be time to get a chance to meet and get to know the current PY3 students who will be on rotations with you in the coming year.

The conference will once again provide the opportunity to network and participate in breakout session discussions with your peers.

Getting To Know E*Value

We will go into much greater detail concerning E*Value at Preceptor Conference in April, but for those of you that are curious to start looking around the new system here are some notes to get you started.

The web address for the site is www.e-value.net so go ahead and add that to your bookmarks if you wish. Getting logged in for the first time is easy, simply click "Forgot Password" in the login area to have your password and login name emailed to you. When you are prompted to enter an email address please be sure that it is the one we have on record for you here at our offices.

With your login name and password now in hand you will be able to log in to your E*Value page. Also, feel free to change your login name and password to something that you will remember easily.

We look forward to sharing more with you concerning E*Value in April.
